Holy Cross Parish celebrated its first Mass on Sunday, July 3, 1960 in a small church building donated by Mrs. Yvonne Famel. The church takes its name from a relic of the True Cross which was also donated by Mrs. Famel. In 1966 a new Church building was constructed and the parish moved to its current location on 150th Street. Holy Cross celebrated its 50th anniversary on September 19, 2010 at the dedication and blessing of our new church building.

La Parroquia de la Santa Cruz celebró la primer misa el 3 de julio de 1960 en un templo pequeño donado por la Sra. Yvonne Famel. La parroquia asume su nombre de una reliquia de la cruz donada por la misma persona. En 1966 se contruyó un nuevo templo en la calle 150, dicho templo ahora funciona como centro pastoral. En el 2010 se terminó la construcción del templo actual, y el 19 de septiembre del mismo año se hizo la dedicación en ocasión a la celebración del 50° aniversario de la parroquia, ceremonia presidida por el Obispo Gerald M. Barbarito; siendo pastor el Rev. Nestor Rodriguez.

Pope Francis prayer intentions for November 2024

FOR THOSE WHO HAVE LOST A CHILD

Let us pray that all parents who mourn the loss of a son or daughter find support in their community, and may receive peace of heart from the Spirit of Consolation.

The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

In today's first reading, we hear Daniel's vision of a Son of man receiving kingship from God over an eternal dominion. As Christians, we understand this prophecy to be fulfilled in Jesus, who often referred to himself as the Son of Man. We also hear a vision from Revelation in which Jesus comes again in glory. The Gospel narrates the scene in which Jesus is questioned by Pilate about his kingship, which he cannot understand. Let us listen to God's word, aware that Jesus came into the world to testify to the truth.

VETERANS AND THANKSGIVING DAY

The celebrations of this month, Veterans Day and Thanksgiving Day, offer a profound opportunity for reflection in light of our Catholic faith, bringing to mind themes of gratitude, sacrifice, and communal responsibility.

On Veterans Day, we honor those who have served our country, many sacrificing greatly for the sake of others. Their selflessness mirrors, in a unique way, the call to love and service found in the Gospel. In John 15:13, Jesus says, “Greater love has no one than this, to lay down one’s life for one’s friends.” This day reminds us of those who have lived out this call, risking their own lives for the safety and freedom of others. Through their example, we glimpse a reflection of Christ’s ultimate sacrifice for humanity, a model of courageous, self-giving love. As believers, we’re called not only to honor veterans but also to pray for them, especially for their healing, peace, and spiritual wellbeing.

Then, as we approach Thanksgiving, we are reminded of the profound importance of gratitude—a theme that resonates throughout the Bible. Thanksgiving calls us to reflect on the blessings and gifts we’ve received, recognizing them as expressions of God’s love. As St. Paul reminds us in 1 Thessalonians 5:18, “Give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.” While the origins of Thanksgiving are secular, the spirit of gratitude is at the heart of our faith, especially in the Eucharist. “Eucharist” itself means “thanksgiving,” and through it, we offer thanks to God for His greatest gift: the salvation of all through Jesus Christ.

Together, Veterans Day and Thanksgiving call us to embody a spirit of gratefulness and dedication to the common good. As we gather with loved ones, let us remember those who have served, giving thanks for their sacrifice, and let us strive to live lives worthy of their example by embracing our Christian call to serve, to love, and to be deeply grateful. May our hearts, like theirs, grow in courage and gratitude, responding to the needs of our communities with a spirit of faith, generosity, and thanksgiving.

DÍA DE LOS VETERANOS Y DÍA DE ACCIÓN DE GRACIAS

Durante este mes de Noviembre al celebrar el Día de los Veteranos y el Día de Acción de Gracias, nos ofrece una oportunidad especial para reflexionar a la luz de nuestra fe, trayendo a nuestra mente la gratitud, el sacrificio y la responsabilidad de todos.

En el Día de los Veteranos, honramos a aquellos que han servido a nuestro país, muchos de ellos sacrificándose en gran medida por el bien de los demás. Su entrega desinteresada refleja, de una manera única, el llamado al amor y al servicio que encontramos en el Evangelio. En Juan 15:13, Jesús dice: “Nadie tiene amor más grande que el dar la vida por sus amigos”. Este día nos recuerda a quienes han vivido ese llamado, arriesgando su vida por la seguridad y libertad de otros. A través de su ejemplo, vislumbramos un reflejo del sacrificio supremo de Cristo por la humanidad, un modelo de amor valiente y entregado. Como católicos, estamos llamados no solo a honrar a los veteranos, sino también a orar por ellos, especialmente por su sanación, paz y bienestar espiritual.

Luego, al acercarnos al Día de Acción de Gracias, recordamos la importancia profunda de la gratitud, un tema que resuena a lo largo de la Biblia. Este día nos invita a reflexionar sobre las bendiciones y los dones que hemos recibido, reconociéndolos como expresiones del amor de Dios. Como nos recuerda San Pablo en 1 Tesalonicenses 5:18, “Den gracias en toda circunstancia, porque esta es la voluntad de Dios para ustedes en Cristo Jesús”. Aunque el origen de este día es secular, el espíritu de gratitud está en el corazón de nuestra fe, especialmente en la Eucaristía. La palabra “Eucaristía” significa “acción de gracias”, y a través de ella, damos gracias a Dios por su mayor regalo: la salvación de todos a través de Jesucristo.

Ambos, el Día de los Veteranos y el Día de Acción de Gracias nos llaman a vivir en gratitud y dedicación al bien común. Al reunirnos con nuestros seres queridos, recordemos a quienes han servido, dando gracias por su sacrificio, y esforcémonos por vivir vidas dignas de su ejemplo, abrazando nuestro llamado cristiano a servir, amar y ser profundamente agradecidos. Que nuestros corazones, como los de ellos, crezcan en valentía y gratitud, respondiendo a las necesidades de nuestras comunidades con un espíritu de fe, generosidad y acción de gracias.

Feliz Día del Pavo!
